Sarasota, Florida, December 12, 2019 – Sarasota County Sheriff candidate Colonel Kurt A. Hoffman is proud to announce several recent accomplishments from his campaign including endorsements from United States Congressman Vern Buchanan and United States Congressman Greg Steube. Both endorsements come on the heels of Colonel Hoffman also receiving endorsements from Florida House of Representatives members Will Robinson, Tommy Gregory, James Buchanan, and Florida State Senator Joe Gruters.

Colonel Hoffman’s campaign for Sarasota County Sheriff reported $20,090 in contributions for the month of November, bringing his total monetary contributions to $105,100 to date. Thanks to strong community support, Hoffman hosted two successful fundraisers in October and November. “I am incredibly grateful for the support we received during both fundraising receptions, in addition to the more than 100 people who served on both host committees” commented Hoffman. To date, Colonel Hoffman’s campaign to be the next Sarasota County Sheriff has received contributions from more than 600 individuals and businesses.

In just five short months, Colonel Hoffman’s campaign has fundraised over $100,00 and has received endorsements from more than 45 elected officials. His campaign has also successfully collected 100% of the 3,190 candidate petition forms required to qualify by petition to appear on the election ballot. Colonel Hoffman’s campaign received notice from the Sarasota County Supervisor of Elections office on December 2, that the adequate number of petitions have been certified which excuses candidates from paying a qualifying fee to run for office.

“My team and I have been working hard these past few months to fundraise and collect candidate petitions, and our momentum is stronger than ever. The best part of the process has been getting out, seeing my community and meeting citizens along the way. In addition to receiving endorsements from Congressman Buchanan and Congressman Steube, we hit a major milestone when we exceeded $100,000 and I thank my team and community for helping us get there. As we move into the new year, I am looking so forward to hitting the ground running in 2020 for the home stretch of my campaign to be your next Sarasota County Sheriff” said Hoffman.
